

Want to knock out a big portion of college applications in just a few days?

Come to the Brady College Counseling Application Bootcamp!

Who should attend?

Seniors who would like to get a huge head start on applications BEFORE school starts should attend Boot Camp #1. Boot Camp #2 is designed for students who get started on the process and realize they need help. Both bootcamps give students a strong leg up in the college application process.

What will students complete?

At a minimum, students create a college list, develop an application strategy, complete the Common Application, and write a polished main essay. The main essay can often be used or adapted to other essay prompts. Additionally, many students complete supplemental essays and UC essays.

When is the boot camp offered?

- Boot Camp #1: Tuesday, July 26th -Thursday, July 28th. The hours are 9am- 2pm, Tuesday & Wednesday, and 9am – 12pm on Thursday
- Boot Camp #2: Thursday, September 22rd – Saturday, September 24th. The hours are 6pm – 8pm on Thursday & Friday, and 9am – 3pm on Saturday

How does it work?

In small groups and individualized breakout sessions, students receive expert guidance for the all-important college essays, and learn exactly what it takes to make an application great.

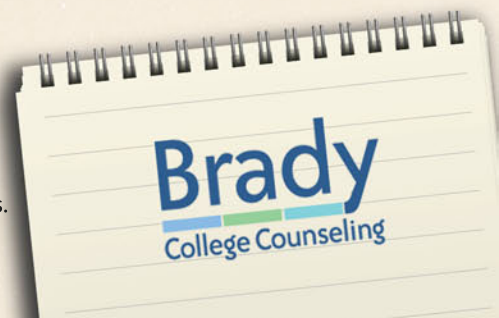

Where are the bootcamps? At Brady College Counseling Carmel Valley Location- Conference Room. 12625 High Bluff Drive, San Diego, CA 92130.

What happens when I leave?

You will walk away with an individualized application plan, housed on our incredible application management software system, which you will have access to for months after the workshop. This will enable you to manage your deadlines and make sure nothing falls through the cracks in the process.

What is the cost?

$1000 (capped at seven students per bootcamp). We require a $200 deposit to reserve a spot.
